

A HISPANIC CULTURAL EVENT

LAS VEGAS PREMIERE

Wednesday March 2, 2011

CLARK COUNTY LIBRARY THEATRE

1401 E. Flamingo Road , Las Vegas, Nevada

6:30 p.m. Cocktail | 7:30 p.m. Screening

Discussion and Q & A

Special Guests:

Jordan Allott, Director | Cuban Ex-Political Prisoners

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Original Musical Score by four-time Grammy Winner Arturo Sandoval

“Dr. Elias Biscet could very well be this hemisphere’s Nelson Mandela and go from political prisoner to being the next President of Cuba...if he survives.”

RSVP at: 702. 637. 8990 or oscarscubalv@gmail.com

Winner of the Presidential Medal of Freedom and the International Award for Human Rights, the Dr. Rainier Hildebrandt Medal , among many others. awards; a physician and devout Christian, Dr. Biscet is the man considered “ most dangerous ” by the Castro regime.

“Here in this dark jail where they force me to live, I will be resisting until the freedom of my people is obtained” Dr. Oscar Elias Biscet

$15 Donation

Please make checks payable to Media Serve International, a 501 (c) (3)

Las Vegas
TRIBUNE

